

United States House of Representatives
WASHINGTON, DC 20515

July 9, 2003

WHAT DO CONSERVATIVE GROUPS THINK OF PRESCRIPTION DRUG RE-IMPORTATION?

Dear Republican Colleague:

As you may have seen in today's Roll Call, the organizations listed below are opposed to Prescription Drug Re-importation. With the House preparing to take up H.R. 2427 next week I thought you might find this of interest.

Sincerely,

/s/

---

SAM JOHNSON
Member of Congress

- Americans for Tax Reform (ATR)
- Citizens Against Government Waste (CAGW)
- Citizens for a Sound Economy (CSE)
- 60 Plus
- United Seniors Association
- Seniors Coalition
- Christian Seniors Association
- Retiresafe.org
- The National Grange
- Council for Affordable Health Insurance
- National Taxpayers Union (NTU)
- Small Business Survival Committee (SBSC)
- New Black Leadership Coalition

In addition, the following groups have circulated papers or articles opposing Prescription Drug Re-importation:

- AEI-- John Calfee
- The Galen Institute-- Joe Moser
- The CATO Institute-- Doug Bandow
- The Heritage Foundation -- Nina Owcharenko
- IPI-- Merrill Matthews
- The Manhattan Institute-- Bob Goldberg